

Registration Fills Up Fast!

Our week fills quickly and we start a waiting list as soon as camp is full. This week is reserved for James City and Williamsburg residents. No exceptions, please! Other weeks are available for other counties/cities—contact your local Virginia Cooperative Extension Office for information.

Volunteering

Call ASAP if interested. We need responsible adult volunteers, and if you volunteer, your child might get to camp for free! An application, references, and training are required.

Jamestown 4-H Center

We are an exclusive, safe location that hosts educational, developmental team building and corporate events and 9 weeks of summer camp to 22 units in the state.

The 4-H property offers an unobstructed view of the James River, 2 Lodges that each sleep 50, 4 cabins that sleep 30, a Low Ropes Course, swimming pool, newly renovated amphitheater, fishing pier, living shoreline with a beach, dining and recreation halls that can be used simultaneously by groups, multiple outdoor activities in a large recreational field typical of summer camps, acres of wooded property shielding us from development and a level of charm one can only experience first hand.

Jamestown 4-H Educational Center is a proudly accredited American Camp Association camp, and is in collaboration with Virginia Cooperative Extension and Character Counts.. The 4-H Center is also a proud member of Network Williamsburg and Greater Williamsburg Chamber and Tourism Alliance.

About Camp

Jamestown 4-H Educational Center is located outside of Williamsburg along the banks of the James River. The facilities include air conditioned cabins and lodges, swimming pool with diving board, a health clinic, air rifle and archery ranges, boardwalk, 100 foot pier, amphitheater for campfire programs, basketball courts and picnic pavilions.

Air conditioned recreation hall and dining facility are added amenities. With 16 wooded and open acres, Jamestown 4-H Camp maintains a rustic, country atmosphere.

Remember...

Camp is not a spectator sport!
